

HUSCO CODE OF BASIC WORKING CONDITIONS AND CORPORATE RESPONSIBILITY

Husco considers its employees to be our most highly valued and important resources. Accordingly, the company has established policies and guidelines to ensure that its employees throughout the globe be treated with respect, fairness and will be provided safe working conditions that meet or exceed industry standards. The company's guiding principles, as listed below, are consistent with, and in many instances, derived from the following human rights frameworks and charter:

- The United Nations Global Compact
- The United Nations Universal Declaration of Human Rights
- The Global Sullivan Principles of Social Responsibility

The diverse settings in which the company operates require that a statement of our basic working condition be general in nature. In certain situations, local legal requirements, labor agreements and other contractual and non-contractual arrangements may modify portions of this policy letter. Nevertheless the company intends this to be an affirmation of basic guiding principles that should serve as the cornerstone of its relationship with employees.

CHILD LABOR

The company will not use child labor. In no event will the company employ any person below the age of 16, unless this is part of an authorized job training or apprenticeship/internship program that would be clearly beneficial to the persons participating.

FREEDOM OF ASSOCIATION

The company recognizes and respects its employees' right to associate freely and bargain collectively. The company will work constructively with recognized employee representatives to promote the interests of its employees. In locations where employees are not represented by unions, the company will provide opportunities for employee concerns to be heard.

COMPENSATION

The company will promote our employees' material well-being by providing compensation and benefits that are competitive and comply with applicable law.

The company is committed to fostering an environment that recruits employees with a wide diversity of backgrounds and builds a culture that allows every employee to thrive. All employees who align with the company's values will have an equal opportunity for success and advancement, regardless of their race, national origin or ancestry, age, religion, gender, sexuality, personal style, minority or indigenous peoples, veteran status, disability or background.

LAND, FOREST AND WATER RIGHTS & FORCED EVICTION

We believe that the sustainable production and consumption of automobiles should not come at the cost of forced eviction and the deprivation of land, forest and water rights of local communities. Husco is committed to upholding the human rights of communities impacted by our operations and supply chains, and to avoid any practices that result in forced eviction or the loss of land, forest, and water resources. We recognize the critical importance of these resources to the well-being and livelihoods of local communities.

EQUAL RIGHTS

The company will provide equal treatment to all individuals or groups for employment-related decisions, irrespective of characteristics such as gender, race, color, religion, genetic features, social origin or any other legally protected class.

USE OF PRIVATE OR PUBLIC SECURITY FORCES

Husco acknowledges that the use of private or public security forces to protect our business or projects may have significant implications on the protection of human rights. We are committed to ensuring that the deployment of such security forces, if necessary, is carried out with the utmost care and caution. In this regard, we will not engage in the use of security forces unless we are confident that they have been adequately trained, controlled, and monitored to prevent any potential violation of human rights.

EXTERNAL STAKEHOLDER HUMAN RIGHTS

The company is committed to upholding human rights across our entire value chain. We expect our suppliers, partners, and other external stakeholders to adhere to ethical labor practices, including fair wages, safe working conditions, and the prohibition of forced or child labor.
